CALLS
A - SPADE — A - SPADE!

His conclusions on the Spanish situation are very enlightening,
as witness this news article:

From the New York Times, August 17, 1937.

HURLEY HITS SPANISH REDS

He Refuses to Attend Boston Dinner to Three Returned Volunteers

BOSTON, Aug. 16 (A.P.).—Declaring that Spanish Government forces were "communistic Reds out of sympathy with the Government of the United States," Governor Charles F. Hurley today turned down an invitation to a reception Thursday in honor of three Boston brothers who fought with the Abraham Lincoln Battalion. ✕

Mr. Hurley declared: "I would not permit myself to associate with either an individual or a group of communistic Reds, who are out of sympathy with the constituted Government of the United States."

The brothers, Charles, Francis and Edward Flaherty, recently returned from Spain, where they fought for the Government.

AUGUST, 1938

Exempt Jobs Cut

EWING PAC Non-Political

The report will also show that the merit system has been extended to include quasi-governmental agencies, such as the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children, a change brought about through an investigation under the Mayor's direction. The report will show that in former years (ED. NOTE: Under Tammany administrations) agents of the S. P. C. C. numbered "politically appointed ex-hardtenders, ex-sailors, hutchers, and one fruit-and-vegetable man."

Work Still Incomplete

FLASH!!!

"Surpless said later the committee might ask for a $50,000 appropriation. Richard J. Barry, counsel to the committee, issued a statement indicating that he planned to follow up the evidence presented before the McNaboe Legislative Committee that the Bankers (sic) Alliance dominated the city relief program." —New York Daily News, July 6, 1938, reporting on Councilman Abner Surpless' plans to investigate politics in New York City relief.

FR. O'FLANAGAN PLEADS FOR

Urges American Catholics Help Lift Embargo

"The fighting being waged in Spain today is like the fight in this country at the time of the American Revolution, like the fight of Ireland in 1798," Father Michael O'Flanagan, beloved Irish priest and official historian for the Irish Free State, declared at the Madison Square Garden meeting before 20,000 in July.

Franco, Hitler Allies

"To support Franco in Spain means being on the side of Hitler in Austria," declared the Irish priest, who said he spoke as a friend of all democratic forces.

Father. O'Flanagan told the American Catholic to make up his own mind on political matters. "I say to every Bishop of the Church that if you accept your politics from the Pope you are not worthy of citizenship in any country of the world except Vatican City. And I say to the Pope, you are not infallible in anything except religious matters. No one in the entire hierarchy of the Church can dictate the political views of its members, and even the Pope has no authority in that sphere."

Russels Doing God's Work

Citing the example of the Soviet Union, Father O'Flanagan declared that "the Republic of Russia is doing the work of God in Spain and China," and urged his fellow American Catholics to throw their organized might behind the struggle for a Spanish democracy, to resist all attempts of reaction to mislead them, even into hanning the film "Blockade," and to work to "lift the embargo against Loyalist Spain."

Tammany and Civil Service

With this issue NEW YORK'S MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEE begins a series of articles designed to bring the 1938 election message of Civil Service Communists to their fellow employees.

These articles will cut through the fog of slander heaped upon the Communist Party by red-baiters and show that the slogans of the Communists represent the heat interests of ALL HONEST and PROGRESSIVE EMPLOYEES.

The Tammany Tiger, defeated and put to rout in the last city elections, is hungry for meat. By cunning and skulduggery, the Wigwam's chieftains hope to scuttle the victories made for progress. They have used the City Council as a weapon to stall, delay and pervert every bit of progressive legislation introduced by the Labor and Progressive Coalition.

In city departments, Tammany division and bureau heads have drawn in their sails, hoping to weather the anti-Tammany storm. But at the same time, they are conducting a campaign of boring-from-within. They hope to tie up department programs in red tape and enrage the workers against the present administration. They have the audacity to continue to push Tammany favorites and wheel-hor wherever they can.

REJECT TIN-BOXERS AND RED BAITERS

Civil Service workers played an important part in turning the Tin-Box Brigade from office. They helped put red-halting and labor-hating Copeland and Mahoney behind the eight-ball last November.

They were fed up with Tammany's perversion of Civil Service. They had seen loyal employees passed up and dying on promotion lists and again while clubhouse hacks and political relatives got fabulous raises. Out of fear, thousands of city workers paid membership dues to the boys in the club. In many cases city employees worked as

Speech Delivered by Dr. Enrique Carlos De La Casa
Minister Pleni-Potentiary in Charge of the Spanish Embassy

At Madison Square Garden, on July 19, 1937

Friends of Spain:

In the midst of sorrow, I find compensation today in appearing before you as the spokesman of our Government, the representative of the Spanish Republic in the United States, and in assuming the representation of the Spanish colonies in this country at the commemoration of the first anniversary of an event of world-wide significance: the arising in arms of the Spanish people in defense of their legitimate Government, threatened by the insurrection of the army and the clergy, in alliance with the unbridled forces of fascist imperialism, and, since then, the titanic struggle of the toiling classes against the subversion of all the reactionary and obscurantistic elements of Spain, placed in the service of foreign fascism, prostitute of consciences, exploiter of the masses and enemy of democracy and culture, which in its bloody lust for power, is attempting to enslave the Spanish people and to bring them down to the level of the unfortunate countries of Matteoti and Ossietzky.

Today, July 19th, we commemorate the glorious resistance put up by the Spanish people against a traitorous army and a horde of foreign invaders. We celebrate especially that first great defeat suffered by our enemies in their failure to take Madrid and Barcelona, the two principal strongholds of Spanish Democracy. We are gathered here today, July 19th, to honor the heroism of the Spanish people, all of them, for even those living in the zones occupied by our enemies, have fought courageously, opposing the bands of imperialistic fascism. To them all, whether they have triumphed, whether they have fallen, or whether they have suffered the horrors of fascist terror in occupied territory, men and women, young and old, we dedicate this gathering, with the same admiration and gratitude which we owe to the workers who, spilling their blood, vanquished the rebels in Madrid and Barcelona so that we and our future generations may walk erect among the free citizens of the civilized world.

I shall not attempt to analyze the causes of the shameful crumbling of the dictatorship and the monarchy in 1931. The social, political and economic circumstances existing since the birth of the Republic are also too well known to need repeating. We all know how those privileged few, for whom social justice meant only the loss of their undeserved privileges obtained by their ancestors by tyranny and inquisition, and whom the Republic naively maintained in positions of power, plotted secretly through ex-king Alfonso, their agent in Rome, with Mussolini, to overthrow the Republic, offering him the hegemony of Mediterranean Spain in exchange for war material and soldiers; we know how these same reactionary elements, through their mouthpiece, the ex-general Sanjurjo, and with the help of the self-styled General Faupel, the Nazi espionage agent, and now German high commissioner in the zone occupied by the invading armies, plotted the sending of war material and soldiers to the Spanish traitors; we know, again how these elements negotiated with the Portuguese fascist dictatorship the use of its ports and borders for the consummation of the foreign invasion. These facts have already been exposed beyond doubt, have been duly documented by the Spanish Government, have been laid before the League of Nations, and have been published by the press of the civilized world.

Nor is it my purpose to make an analysis of all the events leading to the betrayal of Spain by its army and the international fascist conspiracy against the independence of Spain. My wish, rather, is to comment on the outstanding happenings since the day when the Spanish people took up arms against the traitorous army which, repudiating its oath of loyalty, conspired with the disgruntled aristocracy, the clergy, and the emissaries of Hitler and Mussolini, and, turning against
